

Form # • Record of Daytime Driving Hours

You may use an electronic learner log book app to record your driving hours instead of recording them manually in your Driving Companion. The app must offer a print out with the same information as the paper version. Visit www.myllicence.sa.gov.au for more information on electronic log books.

| Date | Time | | | Location (Suburb) | | Conditions | | | Learner's Signature | Qualified Supervising Driver | | |
|----------|-------------|--------------|----------|-------------------|----------|------------|---------|---------|---------------------|------------------------------|-------------|-----------------|
| | Start am/pm | Finish am/pm | Duration | From | To | Road | Weather | Traffic | | Name | Licence No. | Signature |
| 01/07/06 | 8.30 am | 9.00 am | 30 mins | Mt Barker | Stirling | S ML | D | M | (your signature) | Joanne Bates | T8492 | (QSD signature) |

In each row, you must record:

- the date
- the time that you started and finished
- how many minutes you have driven

In each row, you must record:

- the name of the suburb you drove from
- the name of the suburb you drove to
- the road, weather and traffic conditions using the code at the bottom of the form

(* If you do not record the name of the suburb, your log book will not be accepted).

In each row, you must record:

- your signature

After you have completed a row, give the Log Book to your Qualified Supervising Driver or Accredited Instructor.

They must record:

- their name
- their Driver's Licence number
- their signature
- if a foreign or interstate licence holder, the details below

[SAMPLE]

When you have completed each form, add all the minutes in the Duration column and place the total in the Sub Total box.

This amount can then be entered in to the Declaration of 75 hours Driving form (page 34) to keep a tally of your driving experience progress.

- Record your name and Learner's Permit number

Log Book Declaration

When you have accumulated at least 4500 minutes (including at least 900 minutes night-time driving) complete the 'Declaration of 75 Hours Driving Time' on page 34 and sign in the section provided.

You may also ask a Qualified Supervising Driver to add and sign your totals. They may sign and date the declaration.
